

How your donation helps

is enough to provide two children with their own "Angel Blanket"

$50

will help maintain the music studio space, ensuring disadvantaged youth have a creative space to express themselves

$100

will provide resources for one of our group work programs, supporting families with guidance, education and support.

$500

can provide ten children with school packs, assisting families who need a helping hand at the start of the school year.

$1,000

can help educate high school students about healthy relationships through the Love Bites Program.
